

BIBLE MOUNTAINS

If our hands a Bible held,
And mountain peaks were named,
Some would rise to greater heights,
Because of moments famed.

There's Ararat, first ever named,
Gave rest from Noah's flood.
Moriah too, where Abraham
Made sacrifice of blood.

Then Seir, the Mount of Esau,
He lived with anger's stain.
And ne'er forget the Mount of God,
With Moses' Tablets twain.

There's Hor, where Aaron faced his death,
Still buried there we'll find.
And Nebo; Pisgah's lofty heights,
With Moses left behind.

Then comes Ebal, Gerizim,
And Joshua's call to serve.
Then buried in Mount Ephraim,
His Holy Land reserve.

Gilboa rises from the plains,
Saul's final battle fought.
And Zion then comes into sight,
The Temple David bought.

Mount Carmel, sight of holy fire,
Elijah's moment true.
With Horeb, Sinai's other name,
The Prophet's faith renew.

Say goodbye to precious Zion;
Captives enter Babylon.
Then Tabor rises up to God,
Transfigured Christ upon.

Then rises up Mount Olivet;
The sight of many things,
Where Jesus rose into the clouds,
Returning, King of kings.

The greatest Mount was Calvary,
Golgotha was its name.
Twas' there Christ paid for all our sins,
The greatest Mount of Fame!

But one last mountain bears to be Brought to the Bible fore.
Tis' only called the "great and high,"
View...Home forevermore.
